

Overview
Gallery
Floor Plans
Specifications

Stockley Park
Connectivity
Data Room
News
Contact

Designed in line with expectations for any prestige office in a prime business location, 2 Longwalk was built in 1986 to exacting specifications, from durable steel, aluminium, plate glass and concrete.

The building has benefited since from major modernisation, using only the highest-grade contemporary materials; and the bold, simple architectural lines combine with a strong, no-nonsense profile to convey the overall impression of a purposeful, stylish place to do business, and to work.

